2014

CIBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT

In naming CIBC the top wealth management firm in Canada, World Finance cited the bank's:

- High-calibre advisors and relationship managers to support clients
- Leading managed architecture approach which delivers a strong client-centric offering coupled with robust risk management dynamics
- Strong research teams and best-in-class investment managers
- Proactive understanding of the needs and challenges facing high-net-worth individuals

While this recognition is truly an honour, I hope you agree that it is also a reflection of your consistent experience with CIBC Wood Gundy. Generations of Canadians have relied on the expertise of our Investment Advisors to manage their futures, and at the heart of these relationships are trust and integrity. Through every market cycle, we continue to uphold these standards, ensuring our name remains synonymous with excellent service and sound investment expertise.
